

The Essex Water Color Club

New Jersey's oldest watercolor organization, the EWCC was founded by 27 Essex County artists in 1932 to meet, share ideas, discuss techniques and to exhibit their work.

Today, our two-tiered membership of over 160 represents watermedia artists of all abilities from across the entire State of New Jersey.

Our goals are:

- To provide a meeting environment which promotes the exchange of ideas.
- To support the development of artistic technique.
- And to encourage an interest in watermedia in the community.

We offer our members:

- Six regular meetings a year, each featuring a demonstration by artists specifically selected for their style and technique.
- Watercolor workshops
- Art excursions
- A free video library of more than 60 watercolor lessons.
- A newsletter and web site featuring member news, demo highlights and art opportunities.
- In addition, our exhibiting members may participate in our member shows and exhibit work on our web site.

Meetings are held from 2 - 4pm on the second Sunday of the months of September, October, November, December, March and April, at:

The Livingston Community/Senior Center
204 Hillside Avenue
Livingston, NJ
Phone: (973) 535-7925.

EXHIBITING MEMBERSHIP IS BY JURY ONLY

All adult watercolor artists are invited to submit work for election to exhibiting member status in the EWCC. Our annual review for acceptance is held at our November meeting and at other times approved by the EWCC Board. Current Associate Members and nonmembers may submit paintings for review.

Guidelines for Presenting Art Work

To be considered, candidates must adhere to all rules.

- Candidates should notify Membership Chairman Herb Stanske, at 973-729-6697, of their intention to submit, or to request information or a membership form (also attached here.).
- Submit three (3) watercolor paintings done on half-sheets of watercolor paper (15" x 22"). Art display area (mat window) must be no smaller than 13" x 20".
- All work must be matted, with white or light-colored mats, in a professional manner and properly identified. While framing is not required, it is recommended for best presentation.
- Only original work of the artist may be submitted. No classroom or workshop work.
- Works must be delivered to Membership Chair, Herb Stanske, by 1:30pm on review day at the Livingston Senior/Community Center.
- A completed exhibiting membership application (see form) and a check—$20 for current Associate Members, $45 for nonmembers—must accompany submissions.
- Artwork is reviewed by a panel of jurors for proficiency in handling water media and other criteria.
- Candidates are notified of jury decision by mail. Checks from applicants not accepted for exhibiting membership, will be returned.
- All work must be retrieved on review day, after the meeting.
